

ECHUNGA FAMILY CHURCH

Joining Us from Another Church

Welcome. If you have belonged somewhere else and Echunga has become your church, there is a simple way to make that official — and in most cases it does not involve doing anything over again.

Which of these sounds like you?

- ☐ I am a member of another Uniting Church congregation and would like to move my membership here.
- ☐ I am a member of another denomination — Anglican, Catholic, Baptist, Lutheran, or another — and Echunga is now my church.
- ☐ I want to keep my membership where it is, but take a full part in the life of this church as well.
- ☐ I'm not sure which — happy to work it out with you.

CHURCH AND DENOMINATION

TOWN OR SUBURB

MINISTER OR SECRETARY, IF YOU KNOW

Were you a member, or confirmed, there? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not sure

☐ Please go ahead and ask them for a transfer on my behalf.

Your baptism

Have you been baptised? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not sure

IF YES — WHICH CHURCH, WHERE, AND ROUGHLY WHEN

Two things worth knowing

We do not baptise anyone a second time; whatever church it happened in, your baptism stands. If you have a conviction that you would like to be baptised anyway, our minister would be happy to meet with you to talk this through.

And if you were baptised as an adult believer in a Baptist or similar church, you are already regarded as a confirmed member of that church — you will be welcomed here by transfer and will not be asked to be confirmed again.

What happens next

- 1 A conversation, so we know each other a little.
- 2 If a transfer is needed, we write to your previous church. Sometimes that takes a few weeks.
- 3 Church Council receives you, and we welcome you in a Sunday service.

Return your completed form to the church office, or bring it with you — and if anything here raises a question, please get in touch first.

We keep rolls of members, as our church requires of us. What you write here is used for that and for ordinary pastoral contact, and is not shared outside the church except for a transfer request made with your permission. Echunga Family Church is a member congregation of the Uniting Church of South Australia.
